EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Gregory Schivley on September 30, 2003.

The application has been amended as follows:

Claim 12, line 1, change "12" (2nd occurrence) to --11--.

REMARKS: The amendment above corrects the dependency of claim 12 from depending on claim 12 (itself) to depending on claim 11.

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Claims 1, 3-8, 11 and 12 are allowable because none of the prior art of record discloses any of: (a) a light guide receiving light at a light-receiving face from a light source and emitting light from a light-emitting face of the light guide, the light guide having an inclined face having an angle of inclination of approximately ten degrees in a positive or negative direction with respect to a plane normal to a light-emitting face of the light guide, the inclined face being a face opposite the light-receiving face of the light guide so that a face opposite the light-emitting face projects beyond the light emitting face at a side of the inclined plane; (b) a light guide receiving light at a light-receiving face from a light source and emitting light from a light-emitting face of the light guide, the light guide having a reflective member provide on an inclined face being a face opposite the light-receiving face of the light guide so that a face opposite the light-emitting face projects beyond the light emitting face at a side of the inclined plane; and (c) a liquid crystal panel including a liquid crystal driving IC mounted on a substrate-extension part where one of a pair of substrates sandwiching liquid crystal extends beyond the other substrate.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
